A Factory Wants to Locate Here.

We are informed by a reliable gentleman that there is a big factory contemplating locating in Paris. With the right kind of encouragement from some of our wide-awake business men this factory will be located here.

Now is the time, organize a Commercial Club, if only with twenty live business men, and get busy. Just think of it, a city with 10,000 inhabitants and not one factory.

Were Good Investments.

Dr. D. S. Henry, promoter of the new addition, Bourbon Heights, to the city of Paris, who sold nineteen lots Tuesday at public auction, sold Wednesday privately to N. H. Ecklar lot 21 in the same addition for $255. One lady who purchased a lot at the sale sold it for a profit of $65 before the sale was concluded. Another purchaser who secured one of the choice lots on Cypress street declined an offer of $100 advance over the cost price.

Sale of Bourbon Heights Lots.

The sale of Bourbon Heights lots by Dr. Henry Tuesday afternoon was a great success in every way. There were over five hundred people in attendance, and Auctioneer A. T. Forsyth was in his happiest mood and kept the bidders going. Dr. Henry is certainly one of our most enterprising citizens, and we regret there are not more like him in our midst. This makes the second residence addition he has opened since his short residence in Paris.

The purchaser of the first lot was to be given the honor of having the new Avenue through the addition named in their behalf, besides, if a man, a free suit worth $25, donated by J. W. Davis & Co.; a new silk dress worth the same amount, by W. Ed Tucker, if a lady.

The bidding was spirited, the lot being finally knocked off to Mrs. C. J. McLean, for $500. The remainder of the lots facing on Cypress Street were then sold in rapid order as follows:

No. 2, J. A. Skillman, $450; No. 3, Mrs. Maria Lyons, $400; No. 4, Dr. F. P. Campbell, $375; No. 5, same, $415; No. 6, W. O. Hinton, $497.50; No. 7, J. W. Bacon, $475; and No. 8, to the same party, for $500.

On the south side of the new Avenue the following lots were sold:

No. 9, to Dr. William Kenney, $255; No. 10, Mrs. Walter Hedges, $270; No. 12, Frank Walker, $285; No. 11, Miss Margaret Terry, $350; No. 13, Miss Grace Donaldson, $280; and No. 14, W. Bacon, $260.

On the north side of the Avenue, the lots sold brought the following prices: No. 25, Mrs. Walter Hedges, $335; No. 24, Miss Margaret Terry, $335; No. 23, Mrs. Jos. Malaney, $300; No. 22, J. S. Johnson, $295; and No. 26, Mrs. Lou Smedley, $400.

Dr. Henry, the owner of the property, then announced that the remaining eight lots would not be offered, when every one came forward and deposited their registration number in a box and Master Wilbur Savely was blindfolded and drew the number, 179, from the box. The lucky number was opposite the name of Miss Margaret Terry and she was declared the winner of the free lot. The sale was one of the best made in recent years and shows the steady values prevailing for desirable homes.

The nineteen lots brought an aggregate of $5,032.50, or an average of $264.82.

Compliment to Prof. Chapman.

We were shown a letter yesterday afternoon from Prof. J. G. Crabbe, the newly elected Superintendent of Public Instructions, to Prof. Geo. W. Chapman, of this city, offering the latter gentleman the superintendency of the Public Schools at Ashland, Ky., the position Prof. Crabbe gives up to take the State office. The salary stated was $2,050 per year.

This is quite a compliment to our Paris Superintendent. Prof. Chapman was told by his board not to consider the offer, as they would not give him up, and although the salary is $800 more than he is now receiving, he will not consider it, preferring to remain in Paris.
